

BREAKING NEWS

Save Our Shows 2017: There's still time to vote Read Story

exposed," said Sara Shepard, the author.

The big themes: "Friendship, making the right choices, and figuring out who you are," Shepard added.

Shepard, 39, a Pittsburgh resident and the mother of two young sons, was one of more than a dozen featured writers at the Southwest Florida Reading Festival on Saturday in downtown Fort Myers' Centennial Park.

3

Fullscreen

Southwest Florida Reading Festival

The Southwest Florida Reading Festival hosted kids, teen and adult authors on Saturday, March 18, 2017, at Centennial Park in downtown Fort Myers. The event also included food, readings, crafts and a battle of the bands. Amanda Inscore/The News-Press

FREE
Confidential Cost
Comparison for Cataract Surgery

Eye Centers of Florida

CLICK HERE TO SCHEDULE YOUR APPOINTMENT

The 18th annual event was organized by the Lee County Library System to promote reading and the library.